As we power through Fall, many of us are likely dreaming about those glorious days on the slopes: schussing down pistes on fresh powder; afternoons on sun-dazzled mountain terraces; cozying up by the fire in your chalet or spa time in a boutique hotel. To celebrate our new book 'The Alps: Hotels, Destinations, Culture' we have handpicked the chicest spots across the Alps and Rockies, including mountain lodges, grand dame hotels, and private chalets, to bookmark for the winter season ahead.

Jungfrau Wengernalp, Wengen, Swiss Alps

Arriving at Wengernalp is an experience in itself, giving you time to relax and enjoy the majestic mountain scenery. The quaint Wengernalpbahn mountain cog train that departs from Lauterbrunnen climbs up through Wengen's wooded slopes to the Kleine Scheidegg mountain pass at 2,061 meters, stopping en-route at the tiny station directly beneath the Hotel Jungfrau Wengernalp. This traditional family-run hotel, originating from the 19th century, has been lovingly restored and modernized in several stages and is one of the most charming hotels in the Alps.
